

FALKIRK ARCHIVES

Records of Churches

Bonnybridge Parish Church finding aid

A Church of Scotland congregation was opened in Bonnybridge on 11th Nov 1877 and the quoad sacra parish was formally disjoined from Denny, Dunipace and Camelon on 14th Mar 1878. The congregation united with High Bonnybridge St Helen's on 31 July 1991 to form Bonnybridge St Helen's.

The Church of Scotland Kirk Session for Bonnybridge sat within the Presbytery of Stirling until 1929. It then sat within the presbytery of Linlithgow and Falkirk and from 1976 in the presbytery of Falkirk.

The building was erected in 1876-1877

Reference Code	Date	Brief Description
A520.03	12 Feb 1928	Sermon delivered by the Rev James Steel M.A. on the 50th anniversary of his ordination as first minister of Bonnybridge. Contains historical sketch of congregation