

FALKIRK ARCHIVES

Records of Organisations

Boys' Brigade finding aid

The Boys' Brigade was founded in 1883 in Glasgow by Sir William Alexander Smith and was the first voluntary uniformed organisation for boys. It has since spread all over the world. The object of the Boys' Brigade is, "the advancement of Christ's kingdom among Boys and the promotion of habits of Obedience, Reverence, Discipline, Self-respect and all that tends towards a true Christian manliness."

The Boys' Brigade in Scotland has its headquarters at Carronvale House, Larbert and there are companies in many local areas. This collection consists of ephemera of local companies.

A240.009	Apr 1951	Programme : Diamond Jubilee Celebrations of 1st Camelon Boys Brigade. Includes short history of company and photographs of company in 1891 and 1951
A615.001	1886-1936	Photocopy of 1st Polmont Boys Brigade Jubilee Souvenir 1886-1936. Contains historical sketch of company, lists of officers and notes on activities